

CHECKLIST

BIOMOLECULES & THERAPEUTICS

1. A correspondent must be a submitter. In the case of co-correspondents, one representative correspondent has to be a submitter.
2. Font of the main text is Times New Roman of 12 pt size.
3. Title is less than 150 characters.
4. Abstract is less than 250 words.
5. Running title (less than 60 characters including spaces and punctuation) is provided.
6. Key words (less than 6) are provided (should be inserted in the submission step).
7. The number of references is less than 50 for an original article and 150 for a review article.
8. References are in the correct style (EndNote Style file).
9. Tables and text files are provided in MS Word Files.
10. Figures are provided in separate files.
11. Figure resolutions are higher than 300 dpi.
12. Figures are at their actual (print) size.
13. Cover letter has been prepared (should be inserted in the submission step). Here, you may include the list of potential reviewers or of excluded ones.
14. The editorial policy of Biomolecules & Therapeutics was recently changed. The study with extract materials or crude essential oils will not be considered in our scope of publication for general applications. The submitting work is not associated with crude extracts or crude essential oils from plants.